It's Shoebox Time... We have 100 boxes to fill for Operation Christmas Child!

Missions has started collecting items for "Operation Christmas Child," our shoebox ministry. We have 100 shoeboxes to fill! What goes in is fun...what comes out is eternal. 124-million children around the world have received a shoebox of gifts and the message of our Savior, Jesus Christ. It has been over 20 years since Samaritan's Purse began delivering Operation Christmas Child shoebox gifts to share the true meaning of Christmas with children around the world. These boxes have been delivered to 150 countries. Millions of children have heard the Gospel through local church partners and have trusted Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior.

A package sent from our church made its way to a 3-year-old boy in the Philippines, whose mother sent us photos via Facebook.

Our church just received a letter from a child in the Philippines who received one of our shoeboxes. It says, "Hello this is my love letter for all before anything else, I just wanna say have a warm bless day. I'm so very happy and thankful for the school supplies that you gave us. It's a big-big help for me and the other students here. We're so very thankful that you all come into our life even if we didn't already meet each other but still we're connected and we feel your love." signed, Kristine Cabalo.

This is exactly how the letter was written. If you would like to read the entire letter, the Missions Team will have it on display in the Fellowship Hall during Coffee Hour. Come share this ministry with us. The collection end date is November 20. We will have information on what items go in the shoeboxes and how you can help with the processing costs.

Let's not forget our local missions: We feed the women at the Watkins Shelter the first Sunday of the month. We could use more help from church members... driving the van, preparing the food, and serving. We will also take donations of turkeys or ham. Missions will prepare and serve these at the Watkins Shelter.

You have always stepped up and made our Missions such a success. In this time of Thanksgiving we would like to say thank you for your donations of food, time, and money. May God bless you during this holiday season!

All Saints' Day in the Roman Catholic tradition is celebrated every year on the first day of November. This special day was known as All Hallows or Hallowmas, which comes from the root words hallows meaning saints and mas meaning Mass. The night before All Saints' Day, Halloween, is also known as the Vigil or Eve of All Hallows. This casts a little different light on Halloween, a night many dress up in costumes, some which are a little scary, and go out and collect a year's supply of candy.

United Methodists often designate the first Sunday in November as All Saints' Sunday, and on this Sunday we remember members/participants of our church and our families who have died in the past year. Their names will be called as a candle burns in their memory. This is a wonderful opportunity to celebrate the lives of those who have gone on before us, and remember how they have touched our lives in some significant way.

NOAH'S PRAYER

—a group poem by the Glendale First United Methodist Church's Memoirs Class

The Ark is noisy, Lord.
The pounding of the rain, buzzing of insects...
And the big noises—
Trumpeting, roaring, mooing,
Growling, barking, meowing, howling—
They never stop.
With each squeak of the ropes and boards,
The walls seem to close in.
How much longer, Lord?
I'm bored and restless
And worried, too.
Do we have enough food?
Will we ever see land?
Everything is in Your hands, Lord.
Help me to believe.

The Memoirs Class meets the second Friday of the month in Room 101 at 10:00 a.m. We'd love to have you join us! No writing experience is necessary. For information, call Shelley Mosley, 623-939-5469.

Let's appreciate each other!

When was the last time you acknowledged the work that someone did at church? If the person is looking for you to donate something or give some money, thank them for their efforts on our behalf even if you have nothing to give at the moment. If the person is performing a service at the church, tell them you appreciate their efforts. If the person is providing moral support or offering to pray for you or a cause, share your concern and thank them for giving you the opportunity. Finally, if a person or group is performing for the enrichment of the church service, let them know you appreciate their work, their efforts and their interest in sharing their abilities and talents with everyone else. It has been a long time since I heard anyone say thanks to the groups I work with. I know they work hard, have a great desire to do well and would appreciate your acknowledging saying something nice. I'm certain that other volunteers would feel the same.

The Greatest Things...

What are the Greatest Things in life? My first thought, there are so many it would be difficult to say which are the greatest! I treasure my relationships. Most important being my partner and spouse, Sandy, along with my daughters, grandsons, and certainly friends--the family we choose—are high on my Greatest Things list. How about the human body, including the amazing capacity of our brain? Because of it, the beautiful places I've visited in my life continue bringing peace and release during a few moments of personal meditation. These are just a few of my Greatest Things.

An old song from camp and college days (The Greatest Thing) comes to mind as I ponder the Greatest Things in life:

The Greatest Thing in all my life is knowing you. (2x)

I want to know you more, want to know you more.

The greatest thing in all my life, is knowing you.

The greatest thing in all my life is loving you. (2x)

I want to love you more, love you more.

The greatest thing in all my life, is loving you.

The greatest thing in all my life is serving you. (2x)

I want to serve you more, serve you more.

The greatest thing in all my life, is serving you.

It makes perfect sense to me that The Greatest Things in life are simple and basic. Perhaps this is why Jesus says, "Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven." (Matthew 18:3 NIV) As adults, we tend to worry more about achieving something great, having enough and getting what we want. Yet the Greatest Things: Knowing, Loving and Serving, and I add Giving, are more life-giving than anything else in life. Striving after these four things will make every aspect of our lives Greater. I offer two examples from my life:

I love to cook! (I also like to eat!) But the greatest joy of cooking comes when the food I've prepared is shared with someone else! The same is true in my Giving. I find joy in Giving. And when the gift is a blessing to someone, gives relief or release to another, and changes the world in some way, my joy intensifies!

During the first four weeks of November we'll have the opportunity to think on The Greatest Things in life: Knowing, Loving, Serving and Giving. It makes perfect sense that The Greatest Things are integrated in the vows of church membership. As members, we are asked, "will you faithfully participate in its ministries by your prayers, your presence, your gifts, your service and your witness?" These vows of church membership, when lived fully, are a blessing in our lives. This is why Jesus (the Way, Truth and Life) promises Abundant Life to all who believe and follow him. "I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly." (John 10:10 NRSV)

What are The Greatest Things in your life? Strive to Know God more, to Love God and Neighbor in the same way Jesus loves you, to Serve God and others, and Give as God gives to you; and you will experience Abundance in life.

Striving with you, to live faithfully,
